2015 COLORADO MIDDLE ALL-STATE CHOIR CONDUCTORS

2015 TREBLE CHOIR CONDUCTOR: DR. JILL BURGETT

Dr. Jill Burgett is Director of Choral Music Ed/Associate Director of Choral Studies at UNC, conducting the Women's Glee Club and Prima Voce Chamber Ensemble, and teaching choral methods and conducting. Her doctorate is from Ball State University, where she was the Don Neuen fellowship recipient and subsequently served as Associate Director of Choral Activities. She holds an MM degree (choral conducting) from Ball State and a BM degree (magna cum laude) from Heidelberg University. For nearly twenty years, Burgett conducted choirs at the middle and high school level in the Indiana public schools. She has served on the Indiana and Colorado ACDA boards and Central Division ACDA board as College and University R&S Chair, and she is currently the President of the Colorado Chapter of the American Choral Directors Association.

Dr. Burgett is an active festival clinician and conference speaker. She is published in Choral Journal and New Grove Dictionary of Music and Musicians. Conducting venues include Prague, Vienna, Budapest, London, and Paris, and a Rome concert tour taking place March 2014.

2015 MEN'S CHOIR CONDUCTOR: DR. ANDREA RAMSEY

Dr. Andrea Ramsey is an Assistant Professor of Conducting and Associate Director of Choral Studies at the University of Colorado-Boulder. Prior to her appointment at CU, Andrea taught choral music methods courses, undergraduate conducting, and conducted the University Chorus at The Ohio State University. She holds a Ph.D. in music education from Michigan State University, where she was a University Distinguished Fellow and conducted the MSU Chamber Choir and assisted with the Women's Chamber Ensemble. Her conducting teachers included Dr. David Rayl, Dr. Sandra Snow, and Dr. Jonathan

Reed. Additionally, she holds a Bachelor of Arts degree in Music Education from Arkansas Tech University and a Masters of Music in Choral Conducting from the University of Kansas where she served as a graduate teaching assistant and conductor of the KU Men's Glee Club, the first female to do so in the 120+ year history of the organization.

As a composer, Dr. Ramsey continues to serve as composer-in-residence to the Allegro Choirs of Kansas City (an upbeat energetic youth choral program serving singers in grades 2-12) where she served as an assistant conductor for two years. A native Arkansan, Andrea has thirteen years of teaching experience with children's, public school and university choruses. Her choral program in the Bentonville Public School district in Northwest Arkansas at Washington Junior High School grew to include approximately 375 students in grades 7-8. The choirs were twice invited to perform for the Arkansas All-State Music Conference. As a guest conductor, she has conducted all-state choruses and honor choirs in Missouri, Louisiana, Georgia, Virginia, and Arkansas. She looks forward to work this year with choirs in New York, Mississippi, Kentucky, Arkansas, West Virginia, Alabama, North Carolina, and Tennessee.

2015 WOMEN'S CHOIR CONDUCTOR: DR. DAVID BRUNNER

David L. Brunner is Professor of Music and Director of Choral Activities at the University of Central Florida and well known for his work with singers of all ages, appearing as a popular honor choir conductor, clinician and composer in thirty-four states and internationally in Canada, the U.K, Europe, Australia and Japan. As a composer, he has received yearly ASCAP awards since 1997 and in 2000 joined a prestigious group of American composers when he was named Raymond W. Brock Commissioned Composer by the American Choral Directors Association. The New York Times has noted him as a "prolific choral writer whose name figures prominently on national repertory lists". He is published by Boosey & Hawkes and Walton Music, with over one hundred pieces in print.

This year David conducts the Colorado All-State MS Treble Chorus and all-county choruses in Hillsborough and Volusia, Florida; is a clinician for Westminster Choir College and the New Jersey ACDA, the Florida Vocal Association at the state FMEA conference, Choral Panorama (FL), and the headliner clinician for the Tennessee state convention of the American Choral Directors Association. He will premiere new works in Pennsylvania and Florida.
